

Solo II Talk

Novice Franklin Sue drove his 2001 Toyota Corolla around the coned in DSP. Proving once again, that you'll have fun no matter where you compete.

(Continued from page 1)

curb. He fixed his car and was so eager to race and prove his dominance in HS, that he showed up to race on July 8! This month, he was able to wrest first place

Another Subie! Autocrossers brace yourself for an onslaught of Imprezas. This month there were 8, including novice Hugh Wang in STS.

in HS from the ever-capable Tim Wolf.

In individual class results, Colin Sato won AS with a 39.629; Collyer Young took second with a 39.752 and Gene Van Orman was third with a 40.681. Curtis Lee once again took BSP, with daughter Jennifer only 1.1 seconds behind. Garret Chew took third. Dean Kawasaki returned this month and took top honors in CSP with a 39.249. Jason Dovgan came in second with a 40.508 and Robert Casteel was third with a 44.065.

Cliff Goto drove his Dodge Neon R/T to a win in a hotly contested DSP with a 41.175. John Davis was a mere 0.43 seconds behind, and third place Gary Kitagawa was 0.24 seconds behind John. In another hotly contested class, ESP, Scott Presson won by 0.312 seconds over Rano Keliikuli's 43.829. Rano just edged out Neal Arakaki by 0.014 seconds!

Keith Binning won FSP with a 40.653 over Robert Hechtmen and Jack Evans. Reid Morimoto drove his Acura Type R to a win in GS over Tyrone Montayre's Audi TT and Kelly Lee's A4. Jon Matsushige drove his way to a win in SM with Richard Crabbe and Ted Hightower rounding out the top three.

Panos Prevedourous put a "serious hurt" on everyone in BS with his 39.156. In fact, he "hurt" 76 drivers because his time was the 3rd fastest overall!

In the battle of the all-wheel drive class, STS, Earl Huang and his Audi TT clocked a 40.701, over Joseph Battista's 41.193. Francis Lining was third only 0.034 seconds behind.

Just a reminder, the next race is August 12! Mark your calendars!!

The Top Novice in July was Derrick Wong driving an all-new 2002 Acura RSX Type-S. His time of 45.273 earned him a 37th overall placing in PAX times. Good job and I hope you'll be back for more!

